Carolinan Associated General Contractors Adds Researchers

Charlotte, NC – April, 2011 - The Carolinas Associated General Contractors (Carolinan AGC) is pleased to announce the addition of Brady Buckley and Elizabeth Lamy to its Charlotte staff. Brady and Elizabeth serve as Public Owner Researchers on the IBuild® Project Leads and Plans Online content team.

Both come to Carolinas AGC with construction backgrounds: Brady worked with a land surveying company and sold construction equipment; Elizabeth is co-founder of the Charlotte Chapter of Architecture for Humanity and donates her free time to the non-profit group.

Carolinan AGC builds its 2,700 members' businesses through workforce development, business development, profit management, and workers' compensation insurance. Visit CAGC at www.cagc.org.
